OUR RESOURCES

Video training

In partnership with the Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE), we launched a free video training titled, “Principles on Combating Corruption”. Designed for business associations, chambers and non-government organisations, the session highlights the need to implement anti-corruption compliance, brings to view case studies on recent corruption scandals and covers best practices on preventing, detecting and mitigating corruption risks.

To register for the training, please visit: www.icc.academy/principles-on-combating-corruption/

Webinars

To help businesses, especially small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs), respond to the COVID-19 crisis, we launched a special edition webinar series, the COVID-19 Briefings.

The one-hour sessions, which features international experts, discuss a range of subjects—from mobilising international research to fight the virus and how banks digitise their trade business to managing risk and the use force majeure contract clauses.

All recordings are available for viewing via our COVID-19 Resource Hub: www.icc.academy/covid-19-resource-hub/

Livecasts

In today’s ever-changing landscape, it is important that professionals expand their reach by diving deeper into how the business ecosystem is evolving.

To showcase best practices for businesses—both big and small—and how successful ideas can be implemented across a range of industries, we host ICC Livecasts, an on-going video series with key specialists.

The 30-minute sessions cover a variety of topics—from the future of the Paris Agreement and solutions for maritime trade involving bills of lading risk to the evolution of SME financing and the origins of the Incoterms rules.

All recordings are available for viewing via our YouTube channel: www.youtube.com/c/ICCAcademyOnline/
ALWAYS EVOLVING

We care about education and aim to provide the best experience possible for our candidates. To achieve this, our team regularly updates every course with exciting new features and refreshed content to keep pace with today’s ever-changing business landscape. Here are some of our most recent adds:

- Courses optimised for all mobile and tablet devices
- A simple navigation system to flip between pages
- A quiz review dashboard for assessment tracking
- Animated videos with voice-overs and transcripts
- Achievement badges for showcasing progression
- An integrated and searchable course glossary of terms

OUR SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

In line with the ICC’s vision to secure peace, prosperity and opportunity for all, we have developed a dedicated scholarship programme for students and trade professionals worldwide.

The initiative offers an 80% bursary on the cost of our flagship online certificates on trade finance—including the Global Trade Certificate and Certified Trade Finance Professional—as well as on international business—including the Export/Import Certificate.

Students from Cambodia, Mexico, Nigeria, Philippines and Sierra Leone have already been awarded scholarships.

Today, digitising invoicing is essential to a business’s ability to grow. When companies are just starting out, invoicing is pretty straightforward. It’s when the volume of customers increases that it starts to become a challenge. While this may sound daunting, it starts with a simple switch to e-invoicing. For ambitious SMEs, this practical and user-friendly course is a must, as it combines the decades of know-how and resources of the ICC Academy, Mastercard, Basware and Xero to help SMEs improve their day-to-day business operations.
